NUMB. 306.

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 28, 1743.

Petersburgh, December 11.

INſtructions have been ſent not only to the Governor of Moſcow, but alſo to the Governors of the Places on the Road to that Capital, to provide every Thing neceſſary for the Reception of her Imperial Majeſty and the Grand Duke, in their Journey thither, which remains fixed for the 14th of January. His Imperial Highneſs is now pretty well recovered from his late Indiſpoſition; but as he ſtill finds himſelf a little weak, it is thought proper by his Phyſicians that he ſhould yet keep his Chamber. Count Liginsky, Ambaſſador from Poland, will take Leave of the Court before it ſets out for Moſcho. We have Reaſon to believe, that the Marquis de la Chetardie will not meet with ſuch extraordinary Succeſs in his Negotiations as was expected. The French have over-done their Affairs here, by boaſting ſo much of that Gentleman's Intereſt; ſo that there is juſt Grounds to think, that whatever Perſonal Reſpect he may meet with, he will not carry all Things before him in his Miniſterial Capacity.

Stockholm, December 13. The Day before Yeſterday his Majeſty, and his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Sweden, went to the Palace of the Admiral and Grand Steward Anckercrona, in order to ſee the two Ruſſian Regiments of Aſtrakan and Caſan march by. Theſe Troops having made a few Days Stay in this Capital, marched to take Winter Quarters in the Country of Rolygan. Theſe Regiments were hardly out of the Town, before others, of the ſame Nation, enter'd it, in order to take Quarters of Refreſhment for a few Days; after which, they will likewiſe go into Winter Quarters. Every Body here admired the Beauty, Activity, and excellent Diſcipline of theſe Troops; beſtowing on them, with leſs Envy, the Praiſes they deſerved, on account of the Ruſſians openly profeſſing, that they ſtood indebted for all theſe Qualifications to the Lectures they received from the Swedes in the beginning of the preſent Century.

Copenhagen, December 24. The 18th, being the Anniverſary of the Princeſs Royal's Birth-day, was obſerved with great Solemnity; and in the Evening all the principal Streets in this City were illuminated. The Promotion of General Officers, that was for ſome Time expected, ſeems to be laid aſide. Freſh Inſtructions have been lately ſent to the Chamberlain Bernſdorff, who is going from Franckfort to Paris, with the Character of Miniſter Plenipotentiary from this Court. It looks, at preſent, as if a Negociation for a General Peace in the North is not ſo near as we could wiſh; for all the Conferences at Court, of late, ſeem to turn on Ways and Means for carrying on the War; and with this View, it is ſaid, that ſome Propoſitions, of a very delicate Nature, will be ſpeedily made, on the Part of his Majeſty, to the Court of Pruſſia.

Imola, December 17. The Auſtrian Army having extended itſelf conſiderably, in order to be the more commodiouſly furniſhed with Proviſions, the Spaniards have thought fit to do the ſame Thing, and have actually advanced one of their Detachments as far as Macerata; but the Fortifications of the Camp at Rimini go on notwithſtanding, and become every Day more formidable. The Auſtrian Army, on the other hand, is continually increaſing by the coming in of ſmall Bodies of Recruits; but as to the Deſigns of Prince Lobkowitz, they are as impenetrable as ever; only his Diſpoſitions make it evident, that he is determined not to part with the Spaniards without ſtriking a Blow. And with this View he has poſted ſome of his Troops in ſuch a Manner, that they will find it very difficult, if not abſolutely impoſſible, to retreat; unleſs the Neapolitan Forces ſhould think fit to enter the Eccleſiaſtical State, in order to bring them off; which, all Things conſidered, is not very probable.

Manheim, December 23. Baron Haſſang, the Emperor's Miniſter, has had ſeveral Conferences with the principal Perſons at this Court; but hitherto we have not been able to learn, whether they relate to War or Peace. We are informed, that the Inhabitants of the Villages in the Black Foreſt, have made very ſtrong Repreſentations to the Court of Vienna, in regard to certain Inconveniences ariſing from the great Number of Troops quarter'd upon them; which Application, it is believed, will ſpeedily produce a good Effect. General Mentzel, with Part of his Huſſars, is marched towards the Maine, but the reſt remain ſtill in the Bergſtraſs; but it is ſaid they will very ſpeedily join the reſt, and continue their March with them towards the Auſtrian Netherlands.

Paris, December 31. It begins to be whiſper'd at Verſailles, that the Court will make two great Efforts in the Spring; one on the Side of Flanders, and the other in Italy. M. Belleiſle has been, for ſome Days, in cloſe Conference with M. Amelot; and it is now ſaid he will command an Army of 40,000 Men, that is to paſs the Rhine early in the Spring, to act in Conjunction with the Imperialiſts. There is a Report, that the Count de Lutrec, who is daily expected here from Franckfort, will be employed in Switzerland; in order to engage the Helvetick Body to comply with the Propoſitions which have been made them in the King's Name; and that after he has finiſhed this Negociation, he will take upon him the Command of the King's Forces in Italy. We do not hear now a Word ſpoken of Peace; and, ſince the Arrival of the Marquis de Fenelon, it is reported, the States-General are gone entirely into the Views of the Courts of Vienna and London.

Bruſſels, December 31. The Dutch Troops quartered in the Auſtrian Netherlands maintain as good Diſcipline as can be expected or deſired; and are as well furniſh'd with every Kind of Neceſſaries as they can wiſh. All our Accounts from French Flanders confirm the Reports we had ſome time ago, that the French are making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for aſſembling there, early in the Spring, an Army of 100,000 Men. Yeſterday our Lieutenant-Governor received an Expreſs from Vienna, with Inſtructions to prepare immediately the Lodgings intended for the Reception of Prince Charles of Lorrain and his Conſort. The ſame Courier is ſaid likewiſe to have brought Advice, that the Negotiation which has been for ſome time on the Carpet between the Courts of Vienna and Dreſden, is at length concluded, and will be made publick in the beginning of the new Year.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bath, Decem. 23. This Morning died here, in the 60th Year of his Age, Hugh Henry, Eſq; of Dublin; whoſe Memory deſerves to be held in ſingular Honour, while Integrity of Heart, and Uſefulneſs of Life, continue to conſtitute true Dignity and Merit.

He early entered into Buſineſs in the Quality of a Banker; and by a laudable Induſtry, uncommon Abilities, and a peculiar Happineſs in conciliating the Eſteem and Confidence of all Ranks and Denominations of Men, he ſoon arrived to a Degree of Eminence beyond any who had ever been in that Station before him; this he ſupported with ſuch Wiſdom and Generoſity of Conduct, as to be at all Times unenvied and beloved; and, in more Inſtances than one, to be univerſally acknowledged as the principal Support of Publick Credit, and a Bleſſing to that Country in which he lived. In Conſequence of this, and in the Courſe of a great many Years during which he continued in Buſineſs, he acquired a very large Fortune; —— but, by the benign Influence of an innate Goodneſs of Heart, which never forſook him, he acquired it with a Character not only unſtained by any one Inſtance of Severity, but remarkably diſtinguiſhed by Humanity, Benevolence, and Largeneſs of Soul.

Uniting the Well-bred Gentleman with the Man of Buſineſs, he was the Delight of his Friends and Acquaintance; and which is a Union ſtill more uncommon, joining the good Chriſtian with the Man of large Poſſeſſions. He cauſed the Bleſſings of many who were ready to periſh to come upon him, and made the Hearts of the Widow and Sorrowful to ſing for Joy.

His whole Behaviour throughout the ſeveral Relations and Circumſtances of private and domeſtick Life, bore a natural Correſpondence and Harmony with his publick Conduct; the ſame invariable Principles animating both.——But what is here ſaid, is not meant for a Character; but only to put into Words a few of thoſe Sentiments which muſt naturally ariſe in the Breaſts of thoſe to whom this Excellent Perſon was known, when they come to hear of his Death.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, December 26. Wind E. N. E. Came down and ſailed his Majeſty's Ship the Northumberland; the Dorrington, Crabb, for East India; the Induſtry Tender, and the Durſley Galley, Campion, for Leghorn. Remains the Furnace, Pembroke's Prize, Urſula Tender, and the Dutch Ship for East India.

Graveſend, December 26. Paſs'd by the Jolly Batchelor, Darby, the Mary, Bird, the Sally, M'Kenzie, the Stromboli Fireſhip, Capt. Bevour; and the Carteret, Chavilier, all from Jamaica; the Firtree, Perry, from Norway; the Chandois, Griffiths, from Rotterdam; the Mary, Tickner, and the Upton, Smith, from Peterſburg; the Union, Stevens, from Oſtend; the Elizabeth and Mary, Adamſon, from Riga; and the Duke of Kingſton, Merriton, from Boulogne.

LONDON.

Private Letters from Paris ſay, that Orders have been lately ſent to Toulon, for all Perſons concerned in the equipping the Squadron, to work Night and Day, Holidays and Sundays, that it might be ready to ſail by the 4th of February, N. S.

The ſame Letters ſay, that an Expreſs had been diſpatched to Madrid, with Advice, that the Troops ſhould certainly embark before the Middle of February; and that they ſhould be augmented, as his Catholick Majeſty had deſired.

We learn from Franckfort, that the Pruſſian Officers employed in Recruiting in that City, and in its Neighbourhood, have received Orders to join their reſpective Regiments in ten Days; upon which they immediately prepared for their Departure.

The Anna Galley, Muhl, from Stockholm for Oporto, having met with contrary Winds, is put into Vigo.

Yeſterday Morning about Seven o'Clock, a Fire broke out at Hammerſmith, over-againſt the Pound, in an empty Houſe, next Door to Mr. Blye, a Grocer and Chandler; which burnt down the Houſe where it began, and likewiſe Mr. Blye's, an honeſt, induſtrious Man, who had a large Stock of Goods, and ſaved little or nothing. A ſtrange Man and Woman were ſeen to go out of it, a little before the Fire broke out; And, it is ſuppoſed, the Houſe being empty, they ſtaid there all Night, and either did it maliciouſly or careleſly. There is no Engine belonging to the Church; and had it not been for thoſe of Mr. Jervis and Mr. Slaughter, two Gentlemen of the Town, who have the Benevolence to keep each of them one, in all Probability, the whole Row of Houſes adjoining, would have been conſumed.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint —— Calhoquin, Eſq; to be an Enſign in the Third Regiment of Foot Guards.

Yeſterday died, at his Houſe in Pall-Mall, Mr. Dawſon, Barber to his Majeſty's Houſhold.

The ſame Day ſeveral Perſons who infeſted the Streets of Weſtminſter with Orange Barrows, were committed to Tothill-Fields Bridewell.

A Fire broke out Yeſterday Morning at a Houſe in Drury-lane, which conſumed the upper Part thereof; but was extinguiſh'd without further Damage.

Yeſterday died, at his Chambers in the King's Bench Walks, William Brewſter, Eſq; Clerk of the Errors.

This Chriſtmas there has been diſtributed, by Order of the Earl of Suffolk, ſix Oxen, to the Poor of the ſix Pariſhes, in Eſſex of which he is Lord of the Manor, and a Sixpenny Loaf to each Perſon.

Laſt Sunday died, at his Lodgings in Surry-ſtreet in the Strand, Zachary Swann, Eſq; a Gentleman of a good Eſtate.

Yeſterday the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the State Lottery, viz. No. 7423, 1000 l. No. 61,308, 57,423, 100 l. each.

The KING, on a Representation made to him of many successful Cures performed by

Dr. John Hooper's FEMALE PILLS.

For many Years in his own private Practice as a Man-wife and Apothecary, in all Cases more peculiarly incident to the Female Sex; and as, since their Publication to the World, they have been found of more general Use in these Cases, than any Medicine ever yet invented: In order therefore to secure the Property to the said Dr. Hooper, and his Assigns, &c. and to prevent counterfeiting so excellent a Medicine, his Majesty has been most graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain.

These PILLS, by long Experience in private Practice, have been found the most useful Remedy against those general Complaints the Female Sex are subject to; they cleanse, purify and cause a free Circulation of the Blood, when in a languid or stagnated; open those Obstructions which Virgins are subject to, and bring Nature into its proper Channel, whereby Health is recover'd, and the Patient, that look'd like Death, is restored to a lively Complexion. They are the best Medicine ever discover'd for young Women, when afflicted with what is vulgarly call'd the Green Sickness, which two or three Boxes will certainly cure; and are also excellent for the Palpitation of the Heart, Giddiness, Loathing of Food, bad Digestion, Pains in the Stomach, a Beating of the Arteries of the Neck, short Breath upon every little Motion, Sinking of the Spirits, a dejected Countenance, and Dislike to Exercise and Conversation; and likewise for the Scurvy. For all which Distempers they are a never-failing Cure, and are to be given from five Years old to seventy. They are likewise equally proper for married Women, unless when with Child, and ought always to be taken one Month after Delivery; for they cleanse the Body, and purge off those gross Humours, which, when retain'd, generate numerous Diseases, and render Women unhealthy all their Lives; and therefore should be taken by all Women at the Age of Forty-five or Fifty, to prevent those Disorders that usually attend them at that Time. They have likewise been found a Sovereign Remedy either for Men or Women, in all Hypochondriac, Hysteric, or Vapourish Disorders; for they exceedingly strengthen the Nerves, clear off all gross Humours tending to Melancholy, invigorate the sinking Spirit, and cause an universal Chearfulness in the Body. They are Cordial to the Stomach, and agreeable to the Smell and Taste.

By Vertue of the Patent abovemention'd, I have appointed Messieurs William and Cluer Dicey, and Comp. and John Newbery, my ONLY VENDERS of these Female Pills; to whom all Persons are desired to apply for them, at their Warehouse at the Bible and Crown without Temple-Bar, and at Dr. Bateman's Warehouse in Bow-Church-Yard, London; or at their Printing Offices in Northampton and Reading; at all which Places, Merchants, Captains of Ships, and Country Dealers will have good Allowance to sell again; and particular Directions in any Language will be printed for such as take Quantities to Foreign Parts.

Sold also Retale at my House in Reading,

JOHN HOOPER.

N. B. Each Box contains 40 Pills, which is about 10 Doses, and is sealed up in their Directions, with a Seal having these Words, JN°. HOOPER's FEMALE PILLS, round it, BY THE KING's PATENT, the same as in the Margin.

Price One Shilling the Box.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of

IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of how long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men in the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Heat, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and forcibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. A bundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed honorably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps off the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noster-Row.
